Welcome to the Parish Community of Regina Coeli/St. Paul's!

A warm welcome is extended to all who have come to Regina Coeli/St. Paul's this weekend to join together in this community of worship and praise to Almighty God.

We are grateful to our faithful parishioners who come here every weekend and ask you to officially register if you have not.

Also we welcome our neighbors and guests who visit us occasionally and want you to know that you are always welcome!

If any of the below choices pertain to you, complete the information below and drop in the offertory basket or stop by the Rectory.

HIS WORD TODAY

“Then Peter proceeded to speak and said: ‘In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.’ While Peter was still speaking these things the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God.”

Sermons tell and teach. They tell of the wondrous work of God, and summon others to a deeper faith and holiness of life. The sermons of Peter and Paul in the Acts of the Apostles are short, concise and overwhelming. If they were not, why would the primitive church have experienced such great and rapid growth.

Through the power of the Spirit, manifest through the words of the successor of Jesus Christ, Peter convinced his hearers of the powerful presence of the Holy Spirit in their lives. The church grew, the mission entrusted to the apostles was accepted, and great change took place. Pope Francis in the ‘Joy of the Gospel’ renews this teaching.

Today we listen to sermons meet charismatic evangelizers on TV and CD's, and the Spirit of the Lord speaks through them. We too can be moved as were the first Christians. We are to move from head to heart, and then to action in behalf of the gospel.

When was the last time you told someone about a good sermon you heard, a moving religious book you read, or recognized the presence of the Lord in another person?

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.

Pope Saint John Paul II

Intentions are available for each of the 6 candles that burn in The Adoration Chapel. The stipend for 1 week is $25. If you would like to arrange for a candle intention, contact the rectory office. Week of 5/11-5/15.
