O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.

Pope Saint John Paul II

HIS WORD TODAY

“I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they will increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the Lord’... ‘when He disembarked and saw the vast crowd His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd...”.

One of the oldest biblical images is that of a shepherd. From King David to the gospel of John and Jesus stating He is the Good Shepherd. Peter was told by the Risen Christ ‘feed my sheep.’

With the same concern reflected in the gospel today, may I recall priests, bishops or popes in our life and lifetime who truly filled that role for me. Was it my parish priest who made Christ present in celebrating the sacraments of baptism, gave me the Eucharist or taught me catechism? Was it the bishop who laid hands on me, calling for the Holy Spirit to strengthen me? Was it the bishop of Rome, St. John 23rd or St. John Paul II of our own lifetime who inspired and led us into the third millennium? Is it Pope Francis, humbly bringing the joy of the gospel to a world mired in war, hate, poverty and indifference?

As I ponder I pray for the names and faces who have come to mind and shepherded me, and pray that others will respond to the Shepherd’s call today to ‘feed His sheep.’

TO AVOID ANY CONFUSION DURING MASS, IF THERE IS A FAMILY WISHING TO BRING UP THE OFFERTORY GIFTS DURING OUR WEEKEND LITURGIES, KINDLY NOTIFY THE HEAD USHER.

Intentions are available for each of the 6 candles that burn in The Adoration Chapel. The stipend for 1 week is $25. If you would like to arrange for a candle intention, contact the rectory office. Week of 7/20-7/24:

- A Special Intention
- Special Intention – Anne Vermehren
- Special Intentions – Altar Servers of RCC
- In Memory of Edward Cardinal Egan
- Special Intentions – All Deacons of ADNY
- In Memory of Msgr. William Collins

Call the office if you have any questions or need more information. Adult and teen volunteers needed and welcome! We hope you can join our summer fun with Jesus and Mary!

The air waves carry the bad news daily about many ways "life" is being attacked yet from another angle. We have a daily choice to be made. It is a choice to not allow the discouraging news of pro-choice and all its horrible destructions of life weigh us down. Let us all believe that a major victory will happen soon through the power of Jesus Christ and His Cross.

There are many avenues to consider here. Pray for a major change of heart of those people who occupy the political positions in local, state, and national government. Another avenue is to pray and fast for those who occupy the seats in major corporations, the Board of Directors. These people decide the direction of their companies and in some instances the directions for other companies under authority.
