O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.

Pope Saint John Paul II

Pope Francis will be here very soon and we are excited to welcome him to NY. Please check out the website: www.PopeFrancisNYC.org for his schedule, for information on purchasing commemorative items and other exciting news about his visit.

HIS WORD TODAY

“What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says t them ‘Go in peace, keep warm and eat well.’ But you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself if it does not have works, is dead.”

A prophet, some say is one who comforts the distressed and distresses the comfortable. St. James’ letter should do just that. We can grill ourselves with questions of how I have wasted food just this week,, how I have outgrown clothes in my closet, how I have criticized the poor for being poor, without knowing the real cause.

Some say ‘I am a Catholic, I was baptized.’ Wonderful, but do I practice the faith, attending mass, receiving the sacraments, serving the needs of others? They are the things that Catholics do. I am a Catholic, but do I pay my employees a just wage, provide adequate heat to those who rent from me, do I send a meal to a home where someone is ill or grieving? That is what practicing Catholics do.

Saint James’ letter reminds us of the Archbishop in Brazil, who stated: ‘When I give bread to the poor, they praise me. When I ask why they are poor, they call me a communist.’ Pope Francis asks us, when we give a coin to a beggar, do we look him or her in the face? Do we fear touching them as we place the coin in their hand? Is Christ to be found in giver and receiver?

Faith is real when accompanied by good works. Otherwise it is dead!

Intentions are available for each of the 6 candles that burn in The Adoration Chapel. The stipend for 1 week is $25. If you would like to arrange for a candle intention, call the rectory office, we will be happy to help you. Week of 9/07 ~ 9/11:
