EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – JULY 31, 2016

Insurance for Eternal Life

There is a radio advertisement for a foreign language immersion program that states the following:

-Will a new television make you a better person?

-Will a new pair of shoes get you ahead in life?

And a very wise and faith-centered person from Florida is known to say: "No one is going to stand up at your funeral and say, 'She had a really expensive car' or 'He had attended the Super Bowl three times.' Don't make life about stuff!

Our three readings for the Sunday liturgy this weekend, the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time focus upon things eternal. God desires that we be happy in this world. Saint John Bosco often said, "The Lord wants happy saints, not sad-faced people." The last thing the Lord wants for us is to be reduced to grinding poverty and degradation. Creation is good and should be enjoyed and appreciated. This is why Jesus took on flesh to live among us for thirty-three years – to raise the human person and creation to a new dignity. And yet at the same time, our surroundings, our possessions must point to eternal life. Material things, despite their inherent goodness, are not ends in themselves. History is replete with examples of very wealthy and powerful people who lived sad and empty lives. We look particularly to the story of Lazarus and the rich man, Dives in the Gospel of Saint Luke 16: 19-31. Dives lived a lavish and comfortable life while Lazarus suffered hunger, pain, and oppressive poverty outside the gates of the former's estate. And yet Jesus tells us that it is Lazarus who now enjoys the bliss of Heaven while Dives wallows in eternal pain, sadness, loneliness and spiritual deprivation for his lack of love for the poor.

Earlier this month, the Church in New York bid a sad farewell to one of its great priests. Msgr. James O'Connor, who taught Dogmatic Theology to generations of priests at Saint Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie, and then from 1994 to 2014, served as pastor of our neighboring parish, Saint Joseph's Church, Millbrook was known to often say:

God does not expect spiritual and even moral perfection. He simply asks us to humbly return to him and ask forgiveness every time we sin. Willingness to return again and again to the Lord in sorrow for sin is the true mark of holiness.

Humility and contrition. That is part of our insurance policy! In the words of Saint Paul in his Letter to the Philippians, 3: 20: "Our citizenship resides in Heaven." Eternal life with the Holy Trinity, Our Lady, and the Communion of Saints is more important than any material item or gain. Regular reception of the Sacrament of Penance, the perfect path to the Holy Eucharist, will assist us on our pilgrimage here on earth, and will help us to attain our most important goal, which is Heaven.

Confession: the most comprehensive insurance policy for Eternal Life!

Dear friends in the Lord:

The Church has great needs around the world, and the United States is no exception. Many dioceses here at home face challenges due to priest shortages, lack of funds, remote geography, or impoverished parishes. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal answers these needs and provides grants for projects to strengthen the faith of the people. Forty-two percent of all dioceses in the United States receive Catholic Home Missions support for evangelization, catechesis, ministry formation, and other areas of faith development. Your support of this collection will help our neighbors here in the United States, strengthening the Church at home.

Also this year, we celebrate the important milestone of 50 years of solidarity with the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean. The Church there faces many challenges including a lack of access to resources that the faithful need to nourish their spiritual lives. Often, there are too few priests to meet the needs of the many communities they serve or the communities themselves are simply too isolated to have access to other important resources for the faith. Strategies to train and support evangelization leaders are vital to reach those who are disconnected from the life and mission of the Church.

Please be generous in these collections, and take this opportunity to share your faith with families in Latin America and the Caribbean, and your support of the Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan

DUTCHESS COUNTY FAIR BOOTH

It's that time of year again! Our parish will once again be operating the Regina Coeli Steak Out Booth at the Dutchess County fair, August 23-28. This is one of the major fundraising events for the parish and we need your help to make it a success. If you can give us your time for at least one 6 hour shift, we will give you an admission ticket so you can enjoy the Fair either before or after your shift. We have been doing this for more than 40 years and those who have helped can tell you that we have a lot of fun and enjoy the company of fellow parishioners while raising thousands of dollars for the parish. Sign-up sheets will be placed in the main entry of the church starting July 30th. No experience is necessary and your help will be most appreciated. Call Pat Sheehan @ 229-7193 for questions. Thank you!
