HIS WORD TODAY

“Jesus said to the crowds: ‘This is how it is with the kingdom of God, it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how...To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable fan we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground is the smallest of all the seeds on earth. But once it is sown it springs up and becomes the largest of plants. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.’”

Jesus the teacher, teaching people of the earth and a farming environment, drew a clear picture. Jesus the teacher, speaking to us today, paints a picture of the church and our life of grace. The seed planted in baptism is nourished and grows through a life of prayer, celebration of the sacraments and support of a faith community. Growth is taking place every step of the way. What is required is the creation of an environment of warmth and light to cultivate that growth.

As I reflect on this teaching of Jesus I consider the man other parables Jesus told. Which one stands out most clearly? How do I apply it to my own spiritual life? Is it Luke's story of the lost sheep or forgiving Father? Is the net filled with a catch of good fish and bad? Is it even the example of salt and light in the sermon on the mount?

The beauty of the parables is that they are not limited to time and place, but speak to us today. Which one touches me now?

TO AVOID ANY CONFUSION DURING MASS, IF THERE IS A FAMILY WISHING TO BRING UP THE OFFERTORY GIFTS DURING OUR WEEKEND LITURGIES, KINDLY NOTIFY THE HEAD USHER.

WELCOME NEW CHRISTIANS

The following were presented at our Baptismal Font and have become Children of God and new members of Regina Coeli/St. Paul's Parish.

Please join us in offering a warm welcome and congratulations to the families of: Leone Riley Spencer, Alan Ray Van Buskirk III, Keiran James Patterson, Scott David Hartmann, Lucy Theresa Wolff, Landon Tyler Gilbert, Michael Anthony Chambers, Andre Brian Clayton, Emily Marie Steger, Giomar Eduardo Dongo and Alexandra Jake Primiano

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.
