O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.

Pope Saint John Paul II

WELCOME TO OUR CHURCH!!

We extend a very warm welcome to our visitors and vacationers who may come to Regina Coeli/St. Paul's for daily or Sunday Mass while spending time in our beautiful Hudson Valley. How gratifying to see new faces! It is comforting to know that Catholics from all over the country are so conscious of their obligation to attend the liturgy. God Bless and have a wonderful, safe vacation!

HIS WORD TODAY

“If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites...As for me and my household we will serve the Lord.”... “This saying is hard; who can accept it?”... ‘Does this shock you?...But there are some of you who do not believe...For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father.’”

We make countless decisions every day. What will I wear, what route will I take, what do I wish to eat. They are routine decisions. Joshua calls our attention to decide what God we will serve, as well as how we will serve Him.

He spoke about the pagan gods, yet we are confronted by gods or idols, such as money, prestige, reputation or material things. They secretly occupy our time and attention. Today the word of God can shake us, or in the words of Jesus ‘shock’ us.

Isn't it about time to take stock of our lives and ask what we can do to draw closer to our God? If we are honest, don't we get caught sometimes only going through the motions? Does my prayer life, my worship and my service reflect a decision made from my heart and not just my head? Joshua told his followers to decide then and there and not put it off. The Lord looks for my decision today.

Intentions are available for each of the 6 candles that burn in The Adoration Chapel. The stipend for 1 week is $25. If you would like to arrange for a candle intention, call the rectory office, we will be happy to help you. Week of 8/24 ~ 8/28:

REGINA COELI RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Registration for new families continues this month; especially Kindergarten, First Grade and those moving to new schools. For information, please call 229-9139 or email mrskdepew@reginacoelihp.org. This is going to be a fantastic year so we don't want your children to miss out on any of our programs!! Children who are home schooled or attend school in a different parish are always welcome to join our special events and to share in the music lessons after Mass. Speaking of great...this was our first year of Vacation Bible School in more than 30 years. We had 22 children joined by 9 FAST Team members, 8 adult volunteer & 3 deacons to round out our week! Poster in the vestibule of the church will help you imagine the many activities that taught us the truth that GOD KEEPS HIS PROMISES! Each day, guests, heroes of the Bible, visited our site which was a Nativity stable with hay bales. We added new item to our scene as we learned about Creation, Adam & Eve, Fr. Abraham and Noah. Projects, games, songs, crafts and snacks all shared a daily theme. Out tee shirts were a work of art, created following each theme. The kids enjoyed their take home bags filled with info about the saints, crafts, snacks and items to remind them of our lessons. The best day was Friday when farm animals paid us a visit after Noah shared his story. The dates for next year are on our religious education calendar...plan ahead so your child can join us for this wonderful experience. Thank you to our families who participated and especially to all our student and adult volunteers. There are no better men to portray Biblical heroes & saint than our deacons; thank you!
