O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.

Pope Saint John Paul II

Pope Francis will be in New York September 24th-26th. Please check out the website: www.PopeFrancisNYC.org for his schedule & other exciting information about his visit.

HIS WORD TODAY

“All good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no alteration or shadow caused by change. He willed to give us birth by the word by the word of truth...Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls...religion is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world....Be doers of the word and not just hearers.”

Everything is a gift – life, the next breath you take, the world around us. Yet, unless we are ill, have difficulty breathing, even the difficulties in the world; we often fail to acknowledge the source of all that is good. Unfortunately, we presume it.

Take a minute to reflect on the word that has been planted in you. Welcome it anew. Paul tells us it has power, power to do great things. The word once planted needs to be cultivated, strengthened and allowed to grow. We create the conditions to allow that to happen. As our faith grows, action follows and is expressed in countless ways. From Old testament times through the Acts of the Apostles widows and orphans were of paramount concern. Social outreach is not just a ‘nice thing’, it is the essence of the gospel, the fruit of the efforts of missionary disciples.

What gift do I have which can be brought to someone else? Maybe the Father sent it to me to bring to someone in need. How well have I cultivated the word planted in me?

Intentions are available for each of the 6 candles that burn in The Adoration Chapel. The stipend for 1 week is $25. If you would like to arrange for a candle intention, call the rectory office, we will be happy to help you. Week of 8/31 ~ 9/04:

- In Memory of Gerard M. Pepe
- A Special Intention – Olivo Family
- Special Intention in Thanksgiving – Divine Mercy
- In Memory of Remy Ramos
- Special Intentions- Pope Francis
- Special Intentions – Timothy Cardinal Dolan

AUGUST 30, 2015

Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal

To date our parish has received $78,538 in pledges/gifts toward the 2015 Cardinal's Appeal, from 198 families. For this Appeal to be truly successful, we must have support from all of our families. The Appeal is a vital source of funding for the programs and ministries that sustain the parishes across our Archdiocese. It is not too late to make your gift. Please be as generous as you can. Thank you for your kind support.

REGINA COELI RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Registration for new families continues this month; especially Kindergarten, First Grade and those moving to new schools. For information, please call 229-9139 or email mrskdepew@reginacoelihp.org. This is going to be a fantastic year so we don't want your children to miss out on any of our programs!! Children who are home schooled or attend school in a different parish are always welcome to join our special events and to share in the music lessons after Mass.

Speaking of great...this was our first year of Vacation Bible School in more than 30 years. We had 22 children joined by 9 FAST Team members, 8 adult volunteer & 3 deacons to round out our week! Poster in the vestibule of the church will help you imagine the many activities that taught us the truth that GOD KEEPS HIS PROMISES! Each day, guests, heroes of the Bible, visited our site which was a Nativity stable with hay bales. We added new item to our scene as we learned about Creation, Adam & Eve, Fr. Abraham and Noah. Projects, games, songs, crafts and snacks all shared a daily theme. Out tee shirts were a work of art, created following each theme. The kids enjoyed their take home bags filled with info about the saints, crafts, snacks and items to remind them of our lessons. The best day was Friday when farm animals paid us a visit after Noah shared his story. The dates for next year are on our religious education calendar...plan ahead so your child can join us for this wonderful experience. Thank you to our families who participated and especially to all our student and adult volunteers. There are no better men to portray Biblical heroes & saint than our deacons; thank you!

RCIA PROGRAM AT REGINA COELI CHURCH.....If

you know anyone who is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, or know someone in your life who has not completed the sacraments, you are welcome to call and find out more about our program. If you are looking for a rewarding experience of faith, consider joining our ministry team; there are many different jobs and one is just right for you! Please contact the Religious Education office at 229-9139 or leave a message for Deacon Mark at the rectory, 229-2134.

ArchCare Care Navigation Center

(855) 951-CARE (TTY/TDD: 711) Our Care Navigators are here to help you from 8:00am to 8:00pm, 7 days a week. ArchCare is the healthcare system of the Archdiocese of New York. Our Care Navigation Center is staffed by health & social service professionals dedicated to helping people better understand and access the social, community, and other services they are eligible for. If our programs & services can't assist, a Care Navigator can tell you about other resources located right in your neighborhood. To us, going that extra distance is what caring is all about. Help from a Care Navigator is totally free.
