O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.

Pope Saint John Paul II

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

“Come to me all you who are weary and find life burdensome.” Matt 11:28 Available times that need coverage: Monday 11-12Noon; Thursday 7-8pm; Saturday 5-6am, 6-7am. Call Joan @ 229.2983, Janet @ 229.5378 or Don @ 229.5920 if you can spend an hour with Our Lord.

His Word Today.....

“On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say: ‘Jesus, son of David, have pity on me.’ And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent...Jesus stopped and said ‘Call him.’ So they called the blind man, saying to him, ‘Take courage, get up, Jesus is calling you’. He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, ‘What do you want me to do for you?’...‘Master I want to see.’”

We have visited Jericho on several occasions. We remember the battle when Joshua brought the people into the promised land. We observed Zacchaeus climb the tree and Jesus visited his home. Today we find the blind beggar, sitting at the side of the road. He had the courage to call out to Jesus.

Others tried to impede him, but Jesus stopped, called him, and a beautiful eye opening conversation ensued. The question was asked, the answer given, sight was restored and Bartimaeus followed Him on the way.

Sometimes we can get in the way of people like Bartimaeus, rather than facilitate their meeting Jesus. We become deaf when others are crying out in need. How different when we realize that we are the blind one, or deaf to Jesus’ call.

He asks me today ‘what do you want me to do for you?’ Do I have an answer? Am I willing to ask the same question of Jesus? What does He expect of me?

May my eyes be opened to Bartimaeus in my life. May my prayer be ‘May my generosity bring joy to those in need, that in helping them I may see You.’

Intentions are available for each of the 6 candles that burn in The Adoration Chapel. The stipend for 1 week is $25. If you would like to arrange for a candle intention, call the rectory office, we will be happy to help you. Week of 10/26-10/30:
