THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD,

“I am sure you have heard of the ministry which God in his goodness gave me in your regard. God’s secret plan, as I have briefly described it, was revealed to me, unknown to men in former ages, but now revealed by the Spirit to the holy apostles and prophets. It is no less than this: in Christ Jesus the Gentiles are now co-heirs...members of the same body and sharers in the promise through the preaching of the gospel.”

While we continue to celebrate the joy of the Christmas event, it is good to pause and appreciate the significance of Christ’s becoming one with us. St. Paul, who came to know the Lord only later on the road to Damascus, tells the Ephesians (a city in Turkey today) that three things have happened.

We come to share the inheritance won by Jesus, the gift of grace and salvation. We are 1) coheirs, with special rights, privileges and obligations; 2) members of the body of Christ, which we accept as being part of the church of Jesus Christ, and 3) we are beneficiaries of the great promise given to those who accept discipleship in Christ Jesus. It is worth our while to reflect on all three.

The Christmas event is the source of great joy, as our loving Father sent us a Savior. The epiphany event shows us today, how close Christ wishes to be with us, with the threefold secret of Paul now revealed. May Epiphany deepen our appreciation of Emmanuel, God with us

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.
