Welcome to the Parish Community of Regina Coeli/St. Paul's!

A warm welcome is extended to all who have come to Regina Coeli/St. Paul's this weekend to join together in this community of worship and praise to Almighty God. We are grateful to our faithful parishioners who come here every weekend and ask you to officially register if you have not. Also we welcome our neighbors and guests who visit us occasionally and want you to know that you are always welcome! If any of the below choices pertain to you, complete the information below and drop in the offertory basket or stop by the Rectory.

HIS WORD TODAY

“They found the stone rolled back from the tomb; but when they entered the tomb they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were still at a loss what to think of this, two men in dazzling garments appeared beside them. Terrified, the women bowed to the ground. The men said to them: ‘Why do you search for the living among the dead. He is not here, he has been raised up...’ On their return from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and the others.”

It is our faith in the Risen lord which gathers us today. The greatest miracle of Jesus summons us to say ‘I believe.’ Others might ask of us ‘why do you search for Jesus today?’ ‘Do you really believe He is alive?’

It is our Easter faith, which prompts us to be filled with joy and happiness. It is our faith in Christ among us, which strengthens and supports us. Our search today is to discover the living Christ among us. Pope Francis has told us ‘Jesus Christ is the face of the Father’s mercy... Mercy has become living and visible in Jesus of Nazareth.’

Not unlike the women, we are believers and bring the good news of the Risen Christ to others. It is this Easter faith which brings healing and hope. It is this faith which gives meaning to our lives. We proclaim the great Easter cry ‘Alleluia.’

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT ABOUT EDUCATING YOUR CHILDREN AT HOME? It is a most challenging and gratifying experience for the entire family. "Home schooling" is growing throughout NYS and around the Country. An estimated 88,000 students in NYS alone are educated at home by their parents. Catholic parents who have chosen to educate at home are among these expanding numbers. If you take on the task, then you do not have to do it alone. Distance schools such as Kolbe, Seton and Mother of Divine Grace provide solidly Catholic curricula, books & lesson plans. Hybrid Catholic schools, such as Regina Coeli Academy, offer weekly instruction and testing by qualified tutors. Local co-operatives serve as a support system for guidance, instruction, enrichment activities and friendship. WE ARE FORMING A CO-OPERATIVE HERE IN REGINA COELI PARISH. If you are curious, need assistance getting started or have any questions at all, then please call either Martha Kennedy (505-1834) or Rula Suleiman (345-0435 cell 625-9766).
