FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – JULY 10, 2016

The Good Samaritan

A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. –St. Luke 10:30

This Sunday, the Fifteenth Sunday, Ordinary, we reflect upon one of the most beloved and familiar of Jesus' parables. Interestingly, we know nothing about the origins or religious observances of the man who fell prey to robbers. The spiritual writers believe that Jesus intended him to represent all persons. His background is inconsequential. In his misfortune and suffering, he is assisted by a Samaritan, who otherwise would be considered a heretic by the Jewish people. Samaritans were shunned because they opted to worship not at the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, but on Mount Gerizim located near the modern-day city of Nablus on the West Bank. The fact that Jesus chooses a Samaritan as the protagonist of this parable demonstrates ever so clearly that the gospel message is for the peoples of all nations: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" [Matthew 28: 19]. Christ's love and mercy is for all, and in God's providential care, the most unlikely of persons – a man despised by his neighbors, in this case the Samaritan, is called to bring Christ to all whom they meet.

The robbers left the victim half dead. Sadly, we encounter many who have fallen away from the Church and have opted to reject any opportunities for sanctifying grace. They are half dead spiritually. As we fulfill the gospel mandate to preach the gospel to all peoples – not simply affirming people where they may be, but encouraging them back on that path of excellence and perfection, we are called to bring those who are half dead to the adventure, excitement, and wonder of the Catholic Church. Through our example and particularly our joy, we can succeed in resuscitating those half dead souls. But it is not an easy task. Our love for the Church is often ridiculed and our efforts can be rebuffed. Resisting that temptation to lost hope, we remember the words of Saint Teresa of Avila in her iconic "Bookmark Prayer":

Let nothing trouble you,
let nothing frighten you;
all things are passing.
God alone is changeless.
Patience gains all things.
The one who has God
Wants for nothing.
God alone suffices.

May Our Divine Lord and his Holy Mother, the Queen of Heaven continue to bless our parish family.

Father Michael Morris

Encyclical on the Environment

To some people, Pope Francis's recent encyclical on caring for the earth and the poor seemed like a bolt out of the blue. But it's actually part of a long tradition of papal social encyclicals, dating back at least to Pope Leo XIII's 1891 encyclical, "On the Condition of Labor." And like Pope Leo, Pope Francis criticizes the economic order for the harm it does to ordinary people, as well as to the earth on which all God's creatures depend. To learn more about the Catholic social encyclical tradition, Google: USCCB Blog: social encyclical primer.

PLEASE INFORM THE PRIEST

Because of privacy laws, we cannot inquire about who is in the hospital. VBMC & WMC do provide clergy lists which are helpful to an extent. The parish affiliation item, which patients should be asked when admitted, does not always get asked, especially with emergency cases. One of our priests is scheduled to visit these hospitals every week. If families can notify us of a hospitalization at either of these facilities, we will make every effort to visit. Parishioners who will be hospitalized @ another facility, such as NDH in Rhinebeck, please call us. Parishioners who face major surgery or any other type of hospital stay for serious medical reasons should receive the Anointing of the Sick from one of our parish priests before you enter the hospital. Call the rectory to make arrangements for the anointing to take place.
