SOEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD – JANUARY 1, 2017

Octave of Christmas Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God January 1, 2017

Mary, after her Son, by the grace of God, was exalted over all angels and men.

Second Vatican Ecumenical Council, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, Lumen Gentium, November 21, 1964

2017! For many of us from the fifty-five plus set, 1917 doesn't seem all that long ago. Consider the events that happened one hundred years ago: the entrance of the United States into the carnage of World War One, the apparitions of Our Lady at Fatima, Portugal, the year that the youthful John F. Kennedy was born, the Russian Revolutions of March and November of that year.

But Christ and his Church remain constant and enduring. Only the Church could be so wise and solicitous as to offer the faithful, the consecration of every new year to the mother of God. As we begin the Year of Our Lord 2017, we pray for many blessings upon our parish family, our nation, and the Church. Under the patronage of Our Lady, Queen of Heaven, we have nothing to fear as we begin 2017,

Happy New Year and continued wishes and prayers for a Merry Christmas!

Daily Mass

In the past, it was the policy that if the school district was closed, the church would be closed and a Mass without a congregation would be offered in the rectory so as to fulfill the Mass obligation. As of this winter, no masses in the main church will be canceled regardless of the weather. Mass will indeed be offered every day. It is imperative that the mass be made available to our parishioners. However, for safety reasons, our parishioners should exercise extreme caution in the event of immoderate or dangerous weather. Our Lord does not expect that we venture out in bad weather to attend Holy Mass. Prudence is the key. Even if the priest is the only one present in the church for mass, as liturgy, it still is a public act.
