THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD – JANUARY 8, 2017

The Epiphany of the Lord January 8, 2017

Merry Christmas to our parish family!

Wasn't Christmas two weeks ago? Well as we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord, it is actually more Christmas today than it was on the morning of Christmas Eve. On this day, with the arrival of the Magi, Jesus is revealed to the peoples of all nations. Today, we can most appropriately place our Magi figures in our Nativity crèches at home and in the church. For our Eastern Catholic and Eastern Orthodox brothers and sisters, the celebration of the Epiphany is equal to Christmas.

Tomorrow, January 9, the Church commemorates the Baptism of Our Lord, which closes the Christmas season. But before we welcome Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar, it is with great joy that the ancient practice of the Church, namely, The Annunciation of Easter and the Moveable Feasts be proclaimed:

Know, Dear Brethren, that as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, so by leave of God's mercy we announce to you also the joy of His Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the 1st day of March will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the 16th day of April you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the 25th day of May will be the Ascension of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the 4th day of June, the feast of Pentecost.

On the 18th day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the 3rd day of December, the First Sunday of Advent of our Lord, Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory forever and ever. Amen

-From the Roman Missal, 3rd Edition, Appendix I

Epiphany is affectionately called "Little Christmas," and in keeping with the gifts brought by the Magi to the Infant Christ, children often receive little gifts on this day. I would like to give a gift to our parishioners on this Epiphany. I noticed that our parish is subjected to an inordinate amount of second collections. Granted, some collections, such as World mission Sunday, Peter's Pence, and the Catholic University of America are of a national and international scope. I would like to propose the streamlining of the second collections so that we do not have them almost once a week. In my almost twenty-eight years as a priest, I have never seen a phenomenon as such. I will discuss this further and in more detail within the few weeks. But for now, I just wanted to offer this "Little Christmas" gift to our parish family and also to express my thanks for the extraordinary generosity of our parishioners.

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Michael Morris
