FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT – APRIL 2, 2017

A Married Clergy? Part III

Attached as an insert is a bulletin column I wrote on March 24, 2002, when I was the pastor of Saint Francis of Assisi Parish in the Northeast Bronx. I thought that it might be timely with regard to my previous two bulletin installments on the subject of a married clergy. It was written during a very difficult time for the Church in the United States – on the heels of the abuse crisis in the Archdiocese of Boston, which had tragic implications for the Church in America, even to this very day. I hope that it will provide some edification. Please note that this is the original document with no editing or adapting to the present day.
